

The Last Kingdom

1. The last kingdom will be one without Satan's influence (Revelation 20:1-3).
2. The last kingdom will have believers reigning with Christ for 1000 years (Revelation 20:4-6).
3. The last kingdom will have a brief rebellion at the end and then Satan will be permanently out of the picture (Revelation 20:7-10).

Action point:

Pray the Lord's prayer one day this week and when you finish come back to the phrase, "Thy Kingdom Come" and stop and take some time to pray specifically about that. Pray that it would come soon. Thank God that at that time that Jesus would rule. Thank Him for keeping His word to Abraham, and for keeping His word about our salvation. Thank Him that He created a world where love is possible and thank Him that you will be allowed to reign with Him. Thank Him for showing us that there was not a better way to set up the world where we would not fall away. Then spend some time in worship and sing to Him.
