

Will I Ever Have A Happy Marriage?

1. Happy marriages exist when the husband loves his wife sacrificially (Ephesians 5:25-32).
2. Happy marriages exist when the wife respects her husband unconditionally (Ephesians 5:33).

Action points:

1. Women, write down three things that you respect about your husband. Then sometime this week, tell your husband what you respect about him and why it makes you proud of him.
2. Men take time to learn about your wife. Take her to Starbucks and then sit in the car and ask her about what makes her feel cared for. Purchase and read the book "The Five Love Languages" by Gary Chapman. After reading that ask your wife which of the five best express her love language. . Then make a list of the things she says. Think of 2 things you can do that make her feel loved.
